

2024 Yip's Chinese Music Summer Program

Co-presented by Yip's Canada & Canadian Chinese Orchestra

If your child wants to explore Chinese music and being rhythmic at the same time, this Chinese Music Summer Program is perfect for your child!

The Yip's Chinese Music Summer Program is a flagship program in collaboration with the Canadian Chinese Orchestra. Students will be able to learn about Chinese music notations, gain hands-on experience playing a Chinese instrument, Chinese drumming, and learn about Chinese music theory and culture.

Our Chinese Music Summer Program is directed by the music director, Amely Zhou, and taught by musicians in the Canadian Chinese Orchestra. The program is designed to give students a well-rounded experience of Chinese music. Giving each student a unique chance to take semi-private lessons while at the same time learning to collaborate with one another in an ensemble format.

Class / Fee Term 3 - July 29 to August 09 / $495 (9 days)
Schedule: Full Day 9:00 am - 4:00 pm
Venue: Somerset Academy (7700 Brimley Road)
Age: 6 -14 years old

*Canadian Chinese Orchestra (CCO)

Leading musicians in CCO have been invited to WOWTV to give a series of Chinese music workshops. CCO have also appeared on CBC music, TVOKids, and Canada National TV to promote Chinese traditional music. Chinese music is rich with Chinese philosophies and aesthetics. CCO seeks to share our love for music by collaborating with different organizations to promote Chinese musical culture and arts.
Organization Mandate:

Canadian Chinese Orchestra's mission statement "MUSIC" includes:

- Make the best music learning resources available and accessible to the public;
- Unite lovers of Chinese orchestral music;
- Support multiculturalism by commissioning new musical works;
- Inspire a future generation in the performance of Chinese orchestral music;
- Collaborate with international artists as ambassadors of Canadian-Chinese orchestral music.
